This is a popular cruise for those who love the vibrancy and the ambitious town planning of Hong Kong. High-rises show-casing Hong Kong's architectural phenomenon, include Bank of China. Exchange Square, Hong Kong & Shanghai Banking Corporation, International Finance Centre and Central Plaza along the waterfront. There are other new and remarkable infrastructure landmarks, like Kowloon Expressway, Yaumati Typhoon Shelter and the nearby Stone-cutter's Island which for many decades served as a British Royal Navy base until June 1997; but having be re-built is now a Chinese PLA Navy base. Further on, you will see the spectacular Tsing Ma Bridge linking the new Hong Kong Airport, and it is presently the longest suspension bridge capable of carrying both vehicles and trains in the World. More interesting sceneries along this Western shoreline of Hong Kong are the skyscrapers built on the hillside, traditional shipyards, the high-skill Tuen Mun Highway and the World's largest Container Terminal, all vividly contrasting, but in great harmony.

Tour price:      HK$220 (US$28) per person

(Including: one beer or two soft drinks/tea/coffee and Chinese dim sum buffet)

Pick up points: 08:30 from Queen's Pier, Central and 09:00 from YMCA, Salisbury Road, Tsimshatsui, Kowloon

Discover a tapestry of scenic contrasts in "the land between" commonly known as the New Territories- and the hinterland, which lies between the Kowloon Hills and the boundary of the Special Administrative Region. Here rolling green hills, peaceful woodland and rural markets exist side-by-side, with satellite new towns and modern industry, creating a unique area, which stands as both a gentle reminder of Hong Kong's past as well as of its hopes and plans for the future.

You'll explore one of Hong Kong's most impressive monasteries, then ride pass banana plantations and stop at the lookout point of Tai Mo Shan, Hong Kong's tallest mountain, for a panoramic view of Hong Kong Island to the south, and "the land between" ahead to the north. After visiting a traditional rural market at Tai Po, then to the peaceful bird sanctuary at Luk Keng and its nearby village. The tour takes you through the lush green Plover Cove Country Park to a village where fish are bred in submerged cages. Finally, stop to admire the impressive Sha Tin Racecourse. The tour concludes with a Chinese lunch served at a popular restaurant.

Tour price: HK$395 (US$52) per person

8. Hong Kong Bauhinia Buffet Dinner Cruise Nightly 20:00-22:30 hours

The Victoria Harbour is so fascinating and romantic in the evening. This is where the renowned name, "Pearl of the Orient" has originated. You must not miss the cruise of the "HONG KONG BAUHINIA" which provides you with an invaluable opportunity of experiencing the Harbour yourself. On the spacious deck, you not only enjoy a superb buffet dinner, but also dance to the rhythms of the music played by the Filipino band on the dance floor. (Cash bar available on board)
