3.2 Main Text

These include the main body of the paper, divided into sections and (optionally) subsections with sub-subsections. Sections must be numbered and their title typed in bold capitals (for example, 1. SECTIONS). Subsections must be numbered using two digits and their titles typed in bold typeface (for example, 1.1 Subsections). Sub-subsections must be numbered using three digits and their titles typed in bold typeface (for example, 1.1.1 Sub-subsections). Two blank lines must be left before each title of the sections and one blank line before each title of the subsections and sub-subsections, with the exception of new pages.

4. EQUATIONS, TABLES AND FIGURES

4.1 Equations

Equations must be typeset with the same word processor. You may also type the equation in Mathtype (which is available at www.mathtype.com, with 30 days free trial), and use its default setting. All equations must be numbered and appeared in the following format (font type must be TIMES NEW ROMAN):

$$a + b = c \quad (1)$$

4.2 Tables

Tables must be numbered sequentially, with their title centered above the table.

4.3 Figures

All Figures will be reproduced in black and white. Figures must be drawn in ink or with good quality graphic software. They must be numbered, with their title centered below the figure.

5. REFERENCES

The Harvard System of referencing must be used (see, for example, Transportmetrica). In the body of the text, papers or documents are referred to by the author's surname with the year of publication in parenthesis; if the quotation is itself in parenthesis, the year of publication is separated by a comma. If the reference has more than two authors, only the surname of the first author followed by et al. in italics will appear in the body of the text.

At the end of the paper, complete references must be given alphabetically by author's surname including: surname(s) and initials of author(s), separated by a comma, year of publication in parenthesis, title of the paper, title of the journal in italic typeface, volume of the journal, and first and last pages. In the case of
